This lovely semi-detached town house is located in Cantoria within walking distance of all the amenities. This Moorish town known as the Pearl of Almanzora is located approximately ten minutes drive west of Albox. Cantoria offers a wide range of amenities including town hall, post office, shops, banks, bars, restaurants, and both primary and secondary schools. Sports facilities include a swimming pool, basketball court and a football pitch. The town also boasts a theatre, has its own fireworks fiesta in the winter and will soon be home to an indoor shopping centre. The small local market is held on Wednesday mornings. The property, which is 270m² built on an approximately 300m² plot with an integral courtyard. The building is approximately 100 years old, has been very tastefully renovated and comes fully furnished. There are 6 bedrooms and 6 bathrooms and a fully fitted kitchen which includes a 5 burner range gas cooker and oven, and all white goods. Landline telephone and internet access are available as is satellite television. The property is fully walled and gated and is connected to mains water and electricity. This is a very nice big family home and is currently being run as a successful B&B.
