This lovely property is located in Rambla de Oria, just a short drive away from the market town of Albox. Oria has a town hall, post office, banks, shops, several bars, a restaurant and primary schools and a free bus service to the nearest secondary school in Cantoria. There is a 24 hour medical centre, with the nearest large hospital being in Huerca-Overa. The community swimming pool is open in July and August and the local market is held on Sunday mornings. The property has 2 bedrooms and a bathroom, and comes with a fitted kitchen and white goods. There is also a heating system installed. The building has television, with the possibility of landline telephone and internet access. The property is connected up to mains water and electricity. With this property there is a 80m² plot of land which is available to build upon.
